

School Age

Our school-age program, for children in grades K – 6, is designed to help children develop a good self-image, a wholesome attitude toward reaching their potential and goals and a positive outlook toward learning and school. Our program provides a safe, healthy and fun environment for the students. Students enrolled in this program may be enrolled, two or more days a week, in any of the various sports/extra-curricular programs offered at the facility at a 10% discount. The children may do homework, use computers, participate in clubs, arts and crafts, play board games or play outside.

County funding programs accepted.
